

Press Kit

Short Bio

A retired Navy Chief, Diana Cosby is an international bestselling author of Scottish medieval romantic suspense. Her award-winning MacGruder Brother books are translated in five languages. Diana has spoken at the Library of Congress, Lady Jane's Salon in NYC, and appeared in Woman's Day, on USA Today's romance blog, "Happy Ever After," MSN.com, Atlantic County Women Magazine, and Texoma Living Magazine.

After her career in the Navy, Diana dove into her passion – writing romance novels. With 34 moves behind her, she was anxious to create characters who reflected the amazing cultures and people she's met throughout the world. With the release of her 1st book in her new Scottish medieval The Oath trilogy, "An Oath Taken," which hit bestseller lists in Canada and the United Kingdom, she's now preparing for the release of the e Box Set of the MacGruder Brothers series on February 24th, and the last two books in The Oath trilogy, An Oath Broken – 22 June, and, An Oath Sworn – 23 December, 2015!

Diana looks forward to the years of writing ahead and meeting the amazing people who will share this journey.

Diana Cosby, International Bestselling Author
www.dianacosby.com

Contact

Publisher: Kensington Publishing Corporation

"For review copies, events or interview requests, please contact: Vida Engstrand / Assistant Director of Publicity / Kensington Publishing / vengstrand@kensingtonbooks.com / 212.407.1573"

Agent:
Holly Root
Waxman Leavell Literary Agency
80 Fifth Avenue, Ste. 1101
New York, NY 10011
(212) 675-5556

Waxman Leavell
LITERARY AGENCY

